

ANAESTHESIA FOR SHOULDER SURGERY
Day Course for Anaesthetists

21st September 2004
09:00 – 16:00

Course Organiser:

Dr Atul Kapila BSc, MBBS, FRCA

Faculty:

Dr J Barcroft	Consultant Anaesthetist Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital, Stanmore
Mr S A Copeland	Consultant Surgeon, Reading Shoulder Unit
Dr R Hall	Consultant Anaesthetist, Royal Berkshire Hospital
Dr A Kapila	Consultant Anaesthetist, Royal Berkshire Hospital
Mr O Levy	Consultant Surgeon, Royal Berkshire Hospital
Dr B Nicholls	Consultant Anaesthetist, Musgrove Park Hospital, Taunton
Dr K Maclachlan	Consultant Anaesthetist, Royal Berkshire Hospital
Mrs C Ovey	Specialist Shoulder Physiotherapist, Reading Shoulder Unit

9-9:30 Coffee and Registration

Session I: General considerations:

9:30	Introduction	A Kapila
9:40	Surgical needs	S Copeland
10:00	Care of the patient	R Hall
10:40	Anatomy: Shoulder	O Levy
11:10	Brachial Plexus	A Kapila
11:40	Coffee

Session II: Techniques:

12:00	How to get the best out of your nerve stimulator	K Maclachlan
12:30	Different approaches to the brachial plexus	J Barcroft

13:15 Lunch

Session II: Techniques (contd):

14:15	Use of ultrasound to help identify the brachial plexus	B Nicholls
15:00	Ongoing management of analgesia <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Local anaesthetic regimens - Infusion pumps - Role of acute pain team 	All faculty
15:40	Rehabilitation/mobilisation	C Ovey
16:00	Close of meeting

To be held at
Reading University
 CME 5 points

www.readingshoulderunit.com